CHAMPION RIDING EXPERTS.

heeler Bros. Circus Shows Replete With Great Equestrian Features.

With Great Equestrian Festures.

The new and wonderful Buropean arenic features that have been added to the Wheeler Bros. shows appearing in Norwich Wednesday, May 13, in Danieleon Friday. May 15, Putnam Saturday, May 16, are many and varied but none stand out so prominently in the brilliant galaxy of star feature acts as the LeRoy-Sexton troupe, now seen for the first time in America. These clever people are acknowledged the champion riding experts of Europe and appear in what is classed as the only original equestrian acts known to the circus for the past half century. Their simplest feats are not within the range of accomplishment of the average equestrian, and their more heroic efforts are the bane of envious rivals. They are noted for their dexterous individual and conjunctive performances, which embrace a series of riding and athletic sturis entirely new to the American arems, concluding with simultaneous bounding leaps from the ground to the backs of horses. The certainty of execution with which all their feats are accomplished gives a finished touch that is so frequently isoting in ordinary riders. The Laroy-Sexton troupe are not alone, however, in the Wheeler Bros. equestrian contingent. There are many other riders of both sexes whose names are snyonymous with the best and greatest in equestrian achievements and the majority of whom are progeny of illustrices riding families, thus combining acquired skill with hereditary genius. They represent every school and style or riding—bounding, jockey, semeranting, hurdle, menage and race riders and heroic horsemanship of the frontier.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Three Complete Shows Todayet 2.30, Evening at 7 and 8.45.

To give everyone a chance to enjoy the big comedy show that is at this popular theatre, there will be three complete shows today: the matines will be as usual at 2.30, the evening performances at 7 and 8.45. This will be the policy of this theatre every Saturday. The show that closes today is easily one of the best shows of the season and combines good clean comedy, clever singing and dancing with musical selections that all go to make up a two hours' entertainment. Dreane and Geodwin have made a big hit at every performance with their comedy sketch called The Talkative Woman. This act carries special scenery. The steech called The Taiking yourse.
This act carries special scenery. The Bush DeVere Trio have a delightful illustrated musical specialty that is a treat to listen to. Hobson and Hobson alone by themselves when it are in a class by themselves when it comes to real acrobatic dancing and that is only one of the many features of this act. World and Purcell are two clover colored comedians who have a smappy line of talk and sing much better than the average vaudeville singers. Billy Reno is the only single act on the bill, and his funny rube songs and stories are well worth coming to and stories are well worth coming to hear.

In the photoplays, Our Mutual Girl is the attraction, and many beautiful gowns are displayed on living models from Lord & Taylor's famous New York establishment. A beautiful two-real picture is The Last Supper, produced by the American company, with bidney Ayers giving a dignified portrayal of Christ. The other photoplays are Sweet Land of Liberty, a beauty drams of Little Italy, and Freddie Loosebelt for Africa, a screaming funny comedy with the popular comedian Fred Mace.

For next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday another first class five act bill has been booked and will come right up to the standard of this theatre. Don't forget, there will be two complete orget, there will be two complete hows tonight. Come early. There is

COLONIAL THEATRE.

The Second Generation, Very Strong Drama Along Eugenic Lines.

This very powerful drama, showing the evil of disregarding nature's laws, is interpreted by the marveleus Pathe cast, and tells of a young man whose father and grandfather have shown signs of leasnity. This young man is about to become engaged to a popular young society girl, but the old family physician tells him of the dangers of such a union, as he did the generations before, all of which were disregarded. The young man in this case is wiser and frankly tells the girl's parents of the circumstances, and the engagement is broken. He then seeks the company of a fravolous girl who does not take cariously any of his advances, and one day while drifting down the stream in a canoe with his head in this girl's lap he is seen by his former sweetheart, who is heartbroken. He attempts to explain, but the doctor's words come true and he is seized with a fit of the family taint, insanity, and is carried taint, insanity, and is carried

Other big films for today are The Hope Dawn, Pacific coast story; The Barter of Louise; Acording to Seniority, a Vitagraph military drama, and other line films.

Coming Tuesday for one day only is the season's greatest picture sensation, The Lion and the Moise, in six reels. Prices for this powerful and artistic drama are matines 10c and evening 15c. This is without doubt the biggest hit of the year.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Six Fine Acts and Pictures.

The big six act vaudeville bill at the Auditorium the last half of this week has been causing much favorable comment and is the biggest and best vaudeville bill that has ever appeared in this city for such a low admission. Matinee 19c, evening 10c and 20c.

The vaudeville programme today opens with the Turner Brothers, a very good comedy bump act, in which many funny and difficult falls are taken by these clever pantomime comedians. To close the shaw falls to the lot of Fuller, Rose & Co., who present Winning a King, a screaming burlesque comedy act with special scenery and effects and four people in the cast.

The motion pictures today are a two-reel Rex mystery film with Bob Leonard entitled The Ruby Circle, the Animated Weekly No. 108, and Hawkeye and the Cheese Mystery, a very funny Powers comedy reel.

Another big five act bill has been booked for the first three days of next week with no advance in prices. Six Fine Acts and Pictures.

POETRY

SUNDAY NIGHT.

Tossing throughout this tense and ner-yous night, Sleepless I drowse. My soul, for lack Sheepless I drowse. My soul, for lack of rest,
of rest,
Sinks like a bird that, after flight on flight,
Misses the shelter of its well loved nest.
So would I gain your side and seek,
my love.
The comfortable haven of your breast.

Once more to lie beside the window once more to he beside the window seat

And see, far off, the ribboned river lights, gas lamps in the dusky street;

And, pressing close from proud and alien heights.

The noble skies and the inviolate stars Surround and bless us these autumnal nights.

No words—the silence and your breathless name
Are all that's in the world; and faint and fair

THE MYSTERY OF A YEAR.

little while, a year agone,
I knew her for a romping child,
dimple and a glance that shone
With idle mischief when she smiled.

To me the street was just the same, The people and the city's stir; But life had kindled into firme, And all the world was changed

I watched her in the crowded ways.
A noble form, a queenly head.
With all the woman in her gaze.
The conscious woman in her tread.
